

Red Rose Road Runners Social Media Policy

1. You enter this arena at your own risk. Any comments or posts will appear in real-time and it is impossible for RRRR to police this by reviewing material before it goes live. RRRR cannot guarantee the accuracy, completeness or usefulness of anything on the social medial sites.
2. The club is a running club and encourages content, discussion and conversation regarding our main function, running. RRRR does monitor material but is in no way responsible for its content which expresses the views of the individual concerned and does not represent the views of the club. If you are going to comment please be polite, friendly and fair. If you are not in a position to add value or useful information to the discussion then perhaps it is better not to comment at all.
3. You will not post any material which is knowingly false and/or defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, hateful, harassing, obscene, threatening, invasive of privacy or illegal. Further our values within the club are of support, respect and unity and no material shall be posted at odds with these values.
4. You will post all comments under your own name and not anonymously, under a pseudonym or false id.
5. You will not attempt to solicit business or customers through any RRRR site or group. Any attempt to do so will be regarded as inappropriate use.
6. You are solely responsible for the content of your post and you indemnify RRRR in respect of any costs, expenses, losses, damages or claims arising out of your use of RRRR social media forums. So think before you post.
7. RRRR reserves the right to reveal your identity in the event of any complaint or legal action arising from any person posting a message, and to remove any posting or message at any time without providing a reason.

8. Any user who has an objection, is unsure about the content they wish to post, or wishes to complain please contact the club secretary or other club official using mail@redroseroadrunners.org
9. A gentle reminder, section 4 of the RRRR constitution entitled Membership:
  1. The club shall operate on the basis of equal opportunities for all, ensuring no discrimination on the grounds of gender, race, age, culture, religion, sexual orientation, disability or financial means.
  2. The Committee may unanimously and for good reason terminate the membership of any individual provided that the individual concerned, or his/her representative, shall have the right to be heard by the Committee prior to any decision made.
  3. Any member found guilty of conduct which brings the club into disrepute will be liable to expulsion from the club and this clause shall also include Honorary Officers and Committee Members.
10. In all cases of complaint or enforcement regarding social media the decision of the Committee will be final and binding.
